

THE CHIEFOO CONFERENCE.

Chungking, 29th August.

The miniature review of Chinese troops, which was held at Chungking, on the 29th August, to allow some of the foreign dignitaries to see the Chinese Imperial Commission, the German Commodore, Count Mont, visited His Excellency Li Hung-chang to inspect the magnificent frigate Peking, under his command, and to witness the drill and the various evolutions of the Chinese Imperial Commission. The German Commodore, Count Mont, visited His Excellency Li Hung-chang to inspect the magnificent frigate Peking, under his command, and to witness the drill and the various evolutions of the Chinese Imperial Commission.

The week ended with the same as it had begun, with a light breeze from the east, and a clear sky. The temperature was moderate, and the weather was pleasant. The Chinese troops were well drilled, and the drill was well executed.

The first division of Li Hung-chang's army, which was sent to the front, was well equipped, and the equipment was well executed. The Chinese troops were well drilled, and the drill was well executed.
